

Foundations of Our Nation

A CONSTITUTION SERIES

Discover how the U.S. Constitution affects your past, present, and future at a four-part series hosted by the Corona Public Library, in partnership with California Baptist University.

Presentations will be held at 4 p.m. in the FAM Community Room at the Corona Public Library on Thursdays throughout the month of October.

This series is made possible thanks to Dr. Nancy Bookidis.

Dr. Kenya Davis-Hayes

OCT. 4, 2018

Join a discussion on how the campaigning of the ratification of the constitution impacted America in the 1700s.

Dr. Chase Porter

OCT. 11, 2018

Explore evolving political ideologies such as anarchism, communism, feminism, socialism, etc.

Dr. Troy Hinrichs

OCT. 18, 2018

Hear how Supreme Court Case decisions set precedent for how the Constitution is interpreted.

Dr. Chris McHorney

OCT. 25, 2018

Learn about the importance of political engagement in young America.