CMC Section 17.91.020 Precise Plan Modification

(C) Minor Precise Plan modifications.

(1) The Planning Director has the authority to administratively approve, deny or approve with conditions all minor Precise Plan modifications, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Approval of minor Precise Plan modifications is required for all of the following, including development existing prior to the enactment of this chapter for which an initial Precise Plan was never submitted or approved, with the exception of existing single family homes:

(a) Expansion of floor area comprising less than 30% of an existing building;

(b) Expansion or modification, to a building site, not involving an expansion of building area that affects less than 30% of such building site, including such changes to parking and landscaping;

(c) Facade and other exterior modeling or minor architectural changes affecting less than 30% of the area of any building facade;

(d) The addition or modification of parcel identification signs, including monument signs and pole or pylon signs. Refacing of such signs shall not require a Precise Plan modification as long as no changes are made to the sign structure. A Precise Plan modification shall not be used for signs that have previously approved conditional use permits or would require approval of a conditional use permit;

(e) Modifications to the architecture and floor plans of residential subdivision, provided that the revisions are in substantial conformance to the original approval, and the quality of the architecture is equal to or exceeds the original approval, and such revisions are in conformance with the adopted conditions of approval.

(2) Minor Precise Plan modifications shall be reviewed administratively by the Planning Director. The Planning Director shall render a decision on minor Precise Plan modifications within 30 days of the application being deemed complete. The decision shall be in writing and shall include conditions of approval and the findings contained in § 17.91.070. The Planning Director shall refer applications to the Planning Commission if he or she determines that the proposal has the potential to cause special community impacts or other unique or unusual effects or is not in conformance with the original Precise Plan approval.

CMC Section 17.92.150 Revisions to Site Plan (CUP)

(A) Minor revisions to a site plan approved as part of a conditional use permit may be made after review and approval by the Planning Director pursuant to the site plan review procedure, Chapter 17.102. Minor revisions are defined as revisions which in no way violate the intent or any of the standards or conditions of the permit or of the zone.

(B) Revisions other than minor revisions, as defined in division (A) of this section, made pursuant to the regular conditional use permit procedure set forth in the chapter.

(C) All copies of the approved revised site plan shall be dated and signed by the Planning Director and made a part of the record of the subject conditional use permit. One copy of the approved revised site plan shall be mailed to the applicant.

11. Notice of Complete/Incomplete Applications

The approval of a development proposal requires the review of plans and technical documents. By signing below the applicant is acknowledging that a development application will be deemed incomplete if it does not include all required plans and technical documents, or includes plans and technical documents that are inaccurate or insufficient. By signing below the applicant also acknowledges that incomplete development applications will not be scheduled for public hearing until which time City staff has received and reviewed all required documents.

12. Authorization & Indemnification

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the applicant shall defend, indemnify and hold the City of Corona and its directors, officials, officers, employees, volunteers and agents free and harmless from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, proceedings, costs, expenses, liabilities, losses, damages or injuries of any kind, in law or equity, in any manner arising out of, pertaining to, or incident to any attack against or attempt to challenge, set aside, void or annul any approval, decision or other action of the City of Corona, whether such approval, decision or other action was by its City Council, Planning and Housing Commission or other board, director, official, officer, employee, volunteer or agent. To the extent that Government Code Section 66474.9 applies, the City will promptly notify the applicant of any claim, action or proceeding made known to the City to which Government Code Section 66474.9 applies and the City will fully cooperate in the defense. The Applicant's obligations hereunder shall include, without limitation, the payment of any and all damages, consultant and expert fees, and attorney's fees and other related costs and expenses. The City shall have the right to retain such legal counsel as the City deems necessary and appropriate. Nothing herein shall be construed to require City to defend any attack against or attempt to challenge, set aside, void or annul any such City approval, decision or other action. If at any time Applicant chooses not to defend (or continue to defend) any attack against or attempt to challenge, set aside, void or annul any such City approval, decision or other action, the City may choose, in its sole discretion, to defend or not defend any such action. In the event that the City decides not to defend or continue the defense, Applicant shall be obligated to reimburse City for any and all costs, fees, penalties or damages associated with dismissing the action or proceeding. If at any time both the Applicant and the City choose not to defend (or continue to defend) any action noted herein, all subject City approvals, decisions or other actions shall be null and void. The Applicant shall be required to enter into any reimbursement agreement deemed necessary by the City to effectuate the terms of this condition.
