Revised 7/2024

CMC Section 17.98.030 Special use permits.

The Board of Zoning Adjustment shall hear and decide applications for special use permits as follows:

(A) Uses requiring a special use permit in any zone in the city:

(1) An event requires a special use permit if all of the following criteria apply:

(a) The event is temporary in nature and does not exceed 180 days in a calendar year;
and

(b) The event is open to any sector of the general public, including, but not limited to, events that charge an entrance or admittance fee; and

(c) The event is located outdoors or in a temporary structure, including tents and canopies, but excluding permanent facilities normally accommodating such events, such as a stadium; and

(d) The event is held on private property; and

(e) Temporary structures or trailers, including temporary storage containers in the commercial and industrial zones, for a maximum of 180 days in a calendar year.

(2) Special events which require a special use permit include, but are not limited to, the following, unless specifically excepted under division (B) below:

(a) Carnivals, fairs, circuses and rodeos;

(b) Christmas tree sales lots, pumpkin patches, certified farmers markets and other seasonal outdoor sales;

(c) Car, truck or other vehicle shows;

(d) In the A zone only, temporary sales stands for the sale of agricultural produce by the owner of the land on which the produce is grown. The produce may be sold either on the land where grown or on another site within the A zone owned by the same owner and may only be sold while the produce is in-season locally, not to exceed 365 consecutive days;

(e) Temporary structures or trailers, including temporary storage containers in the commercial and industrial zones, for a maximum of 90 days in a calendar year;

(f) Outdoor music, dance or rock festivals, subject to a festival permit pursuant to Chapter 5.30 of the Corona Municipal Code;

(g) Outdoor display and sale merchandise within the parking lot of a property within a commercial land use district or an M-1, M-2, or M-4 Zones, provided the sale and display of merchandise is limited to products commonly sold by the commercial business or associated with the light industrial or business park use operating on the property;

(h) Uses that meet the criteria set forth in this division (A) or are similar in nature and purpose, as determined by the Planning Director.

FIRE DEPARTMENT REQUIREMENTS SPECIAL USE PERMIT APPLICATION

1. Obtain Fire Department Permit as required by the California Fire Code, Section 105, for any proposed activities in conjunction with Special Use Permit, that involve use of the following:

Place of Assembly inclusive of carnivals, fairs and circus events: The gathering together of fifty (50) or more persons for such purposes as deliberation, education instruction, worship, entertainment, amusement, in drinking or dining establishments, or awaiting transportation. See California Fire Code, Chapter 8, 10 and 24 or and other Chapters as applicable.

Tent: To erect or operate a tent of air supported structure covering an area in excess of two hundred (200) square feet, unless such structures are used exclusively for camping. See California Fire Code, Chapter 25.

Fireworks: Any combustible or explosive composition, or any substance or combination of substances, or device prepared for the purpose of producing a visible or an audible effect by combustion, explosion, deflagration or detonation. See California Fire Code, Chapter 33.

2. Permits required for the activities listed above are to be obtained from the Fire Prevention Division at the Fire Department Administrative Office, prior to engaging in those activities, practices or functions.
3. To obtain the required permit, the following must be completed:
 - a. Submit a completed permit application form available at the Fire Department counter.
 - b. Submit a clearly dimensioned or scaled site plan showing proposed layout of area to be used for the Special Use Permit. Also indicate on the site plan all adjoining streets, drives, fire lanes, fire hydrants, buildings, temporary structures, booths, tents, rides, games, or other similar features. Show all permanent or temporary fences, walls, gates or barricades.
 - c. After the site plan is approved, proceed with the placement of features covered by the permit on the site.
 - d. Contact the Fire Prevention Division at 736-2220 a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours prior to start of use of any activity covered by the permit for inspection of site and permit issuance. Inspections should be scheduled early enough to provide adequate time to allow for any corrections that may be necessary.
4. Approval as a result of an inspection or permit issuance shall not be construed to be an approval of a violation of the California Fire Code or of any other Ordinance of the City of Corona.
5. Additional fire prevention and fire safety requirements may apply to activities that involve the use of open flame devices, cooking and heating, flammable or combustible liquids, flammable decorative materials or ground covers, or similar uses.

For further assistance or questions regarding proposed activities, please contact the Corona Fire Department at (951) 736-2220, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. or visit our Administrative Office at 400 South Vicentia Avenue, Corona, California.

6. Notice of Complete/Incomplete Applications

The approval of a development proposal requires the review of plans and technical documents. By signing below the applicant is acknowledging that a development application will be deemed incomplete if it does not include all required plans and technical documents, or includes plans and technical documents that are inaccurate or insufficient. By signing below the applicant also acknowledges that incomplete development applications will not be scheduled for public hearing until which time City staff has received and reviewed all required documents.

7. Authorization & Indemnification

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the applicant shall defend, indemnify and hold the City of Corona and its directors, officials, officers, employees, volunteers and agents free and harmless from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, proceedings, costs, expenses, liabilities, losses, damages or injuries of any kind, in law or equity, in any manner arising out of, pertaining to, or incident to any attack against or attempt to challenge, set aside, void or annul any approval, decision or other action of the City of Corona, whether such approval, decision or other action was by its City Council, Planning and Housing Commission or other board, director, official, officer, employee, volunteer or agent. To the extent that Government Code Section 66474.9 applies, the City will promptly notify the applicant of any claim, action or proceeding made known to the City to which Government Code Section 66474.9 applies and the City will fully cooperate in the defense. The Applicant's obligations hereunder shall include, without limitation, the payment of any and all damages, consultant and expert fees, and attorney's fees and other related costs and expenses. The City shall have the right to retain such legal counsel as the City deems necessary and appropriate. Nothing herein shall be construed to require City to defend any attack against or attempt to challenge, set aside, void or annul any such City approval, decision or other action. If at any time Applicant chooses not to defend (or continue to defend) any attack against or attempt to challenge, set aside, void or annul any such City approval, decision or other action, the City may choose, in its sole discretion, to defend or not defend any such action. In the event that the City decides not to defend or continue the defense, Applicant shall be obligated to reimburse City for any and all costs, fees, penalties or damages associated with dismissing the action or proceeding. If at any time both the Applicant and the City choose not to defend (or continue to defend) any action noted herein, all subject City approvals, decisions or other actions shall be null and void. The Applicant shall be required to enter into any reimbursement agreement deemed necessary by the City to effectuate the terms of this condition.
