VENDORS NEEDED FOR HOLIDAY LIGHTING CELEBRATION

CORONA, CA– The 2017 Holiday Lighting Celebration is expanding this year to add additional vendors! The City will be closing W. 6th Street between Vicentia Avenue and Buena Vista Avenue which will create room for an increased number of booths. We are looking for specialty booths that offer Christmas and holiday related items such as artwork, crafts, and homemade wares. No food booths will be accepted.

The cost for a vendor booth will be $30, and applications will need to be submitted to the Recreation Office at 400 S. Vicentia, Suite 225 by Tuesday, Nov. 21, 2017. Vendor Application can be downloaded here.

The event will be Sunday, December 3, 2017 from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. on the Front Lawn of the Historic Civic Center and will include 40 tons of snow, pictures with Santa, Luminaries of Life, arts and crafts for the kids, and live entertainment. The average attendance has been 2,000-3,000 participants.

If you have any questions about this event or need additional vendor information please contact Mike Mitchell at 951-736-2368 or email Michael.Mitchell@CoronaCA.gov.
